The Class of '65

Proudly Presents

Clarkston, Washington

Dedication

Since our education today is greatly responsible in building our dream and achievement of tomorrow, it is only fitting to dedicate our annual to a man who has long been at CHS.

We have chosen Mr. Miltenberger this year, who has proven by his many years of service in CHS., first his ability and his abiding interest in each of our tomorrow's, both past and present.

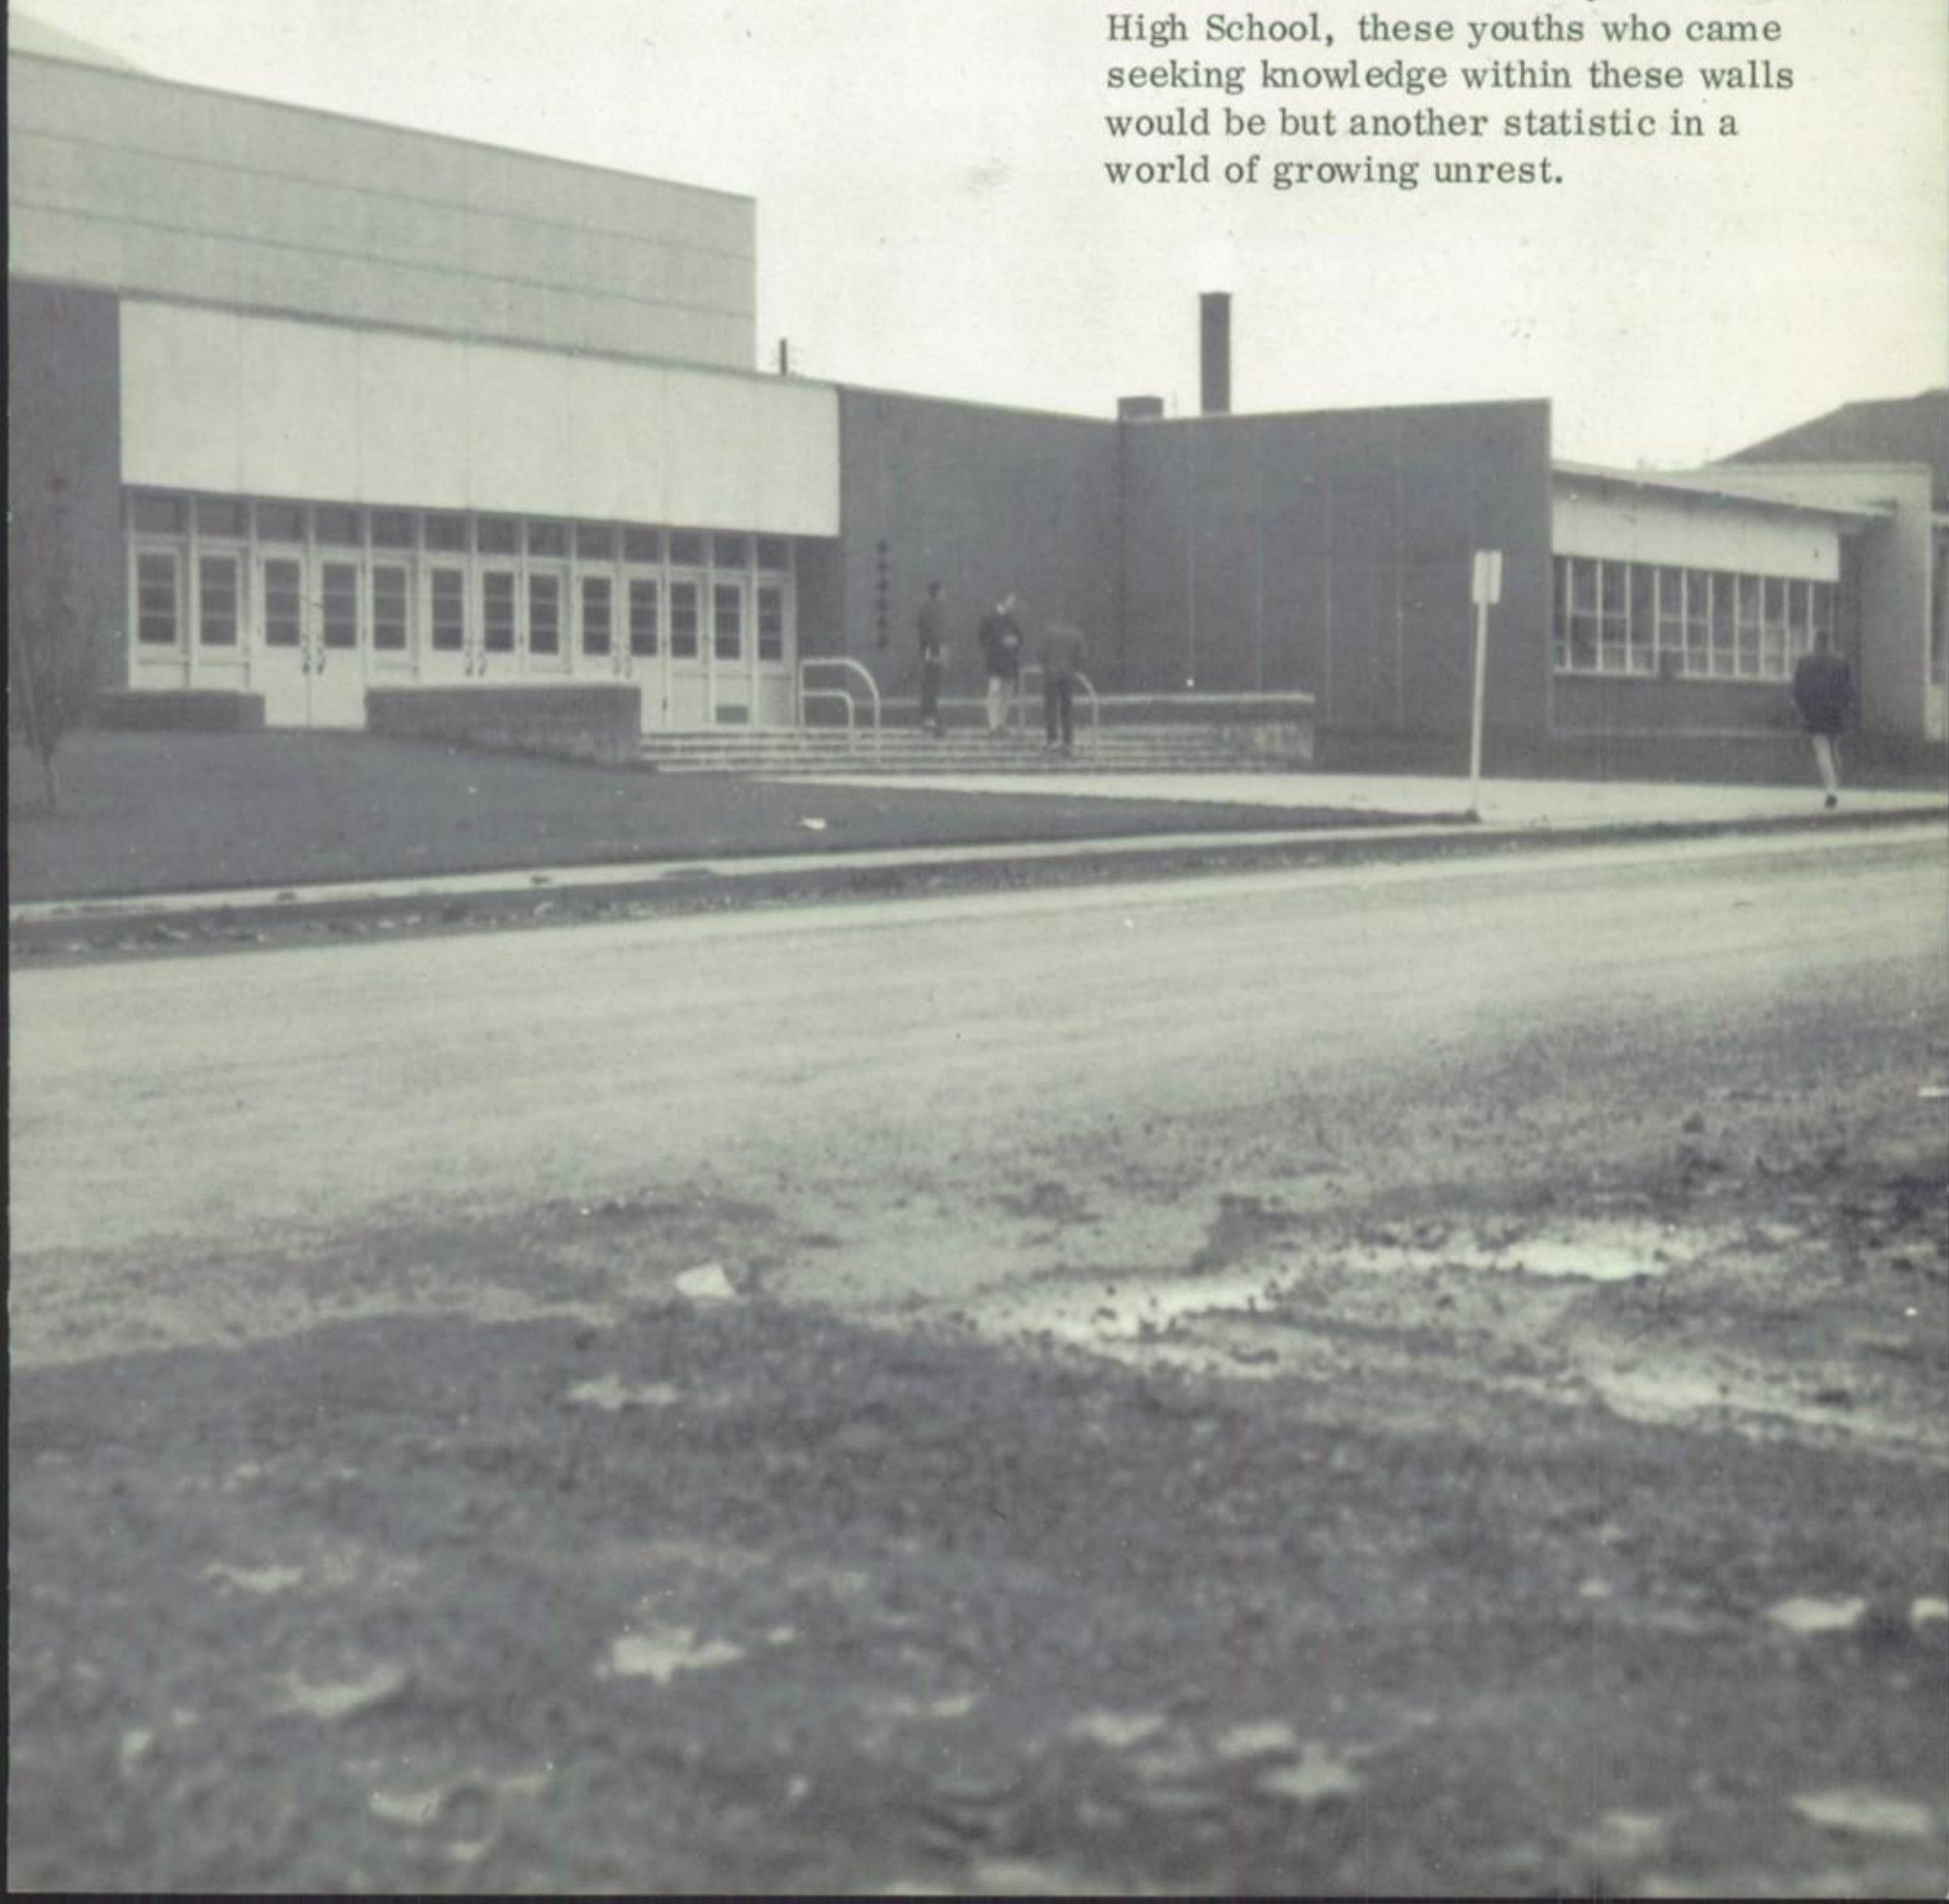

It is for this reason, we as seniors feel as we leave these familiar halls--our lives have gained new luster through his help.

Foreword

Through these portals have passed the leaders of leaders of tomorrows world. Beyond the doors of this institution are the underlying forces that have shaped the bodies and molded the minds of all who draw near.

Without the help and guidance of all the members of the faculty of Clarkston High School, these youths who came seeking knowledge within these walls would be but another statistic in a world of growing unrest.

Dear Linda,
It has been

I want to wish you

School Board

BOARD MEMBERS, left to right: Mr. Leslie James, Mr. William Larson, Mr. Clayton Schurman, Chairman; Mrs. Carol Knowles, and Mr. Robert Miller, Clerk.

Superintendent of Schools

MR. LOUK

It is appropriate that a few words be addressed to the most important group of people in any school system, the students.

A great deal has been written about education, the need for it and society's obligation toward it. The constitution of the state of Washington guarantees the equality of opportunity for education to all youth residing within its borders. You should note that this does not guarantee an equal education to all. This would be an impossible task to accomplish. The hopes, the aspirations, and capabilities of individual human beings vary too much to assume that all can be educated to the same degree. We go to school and classes in groups, but learning is an individual process. Your teachers and your books are but a help; the work and accomplishments are your own.

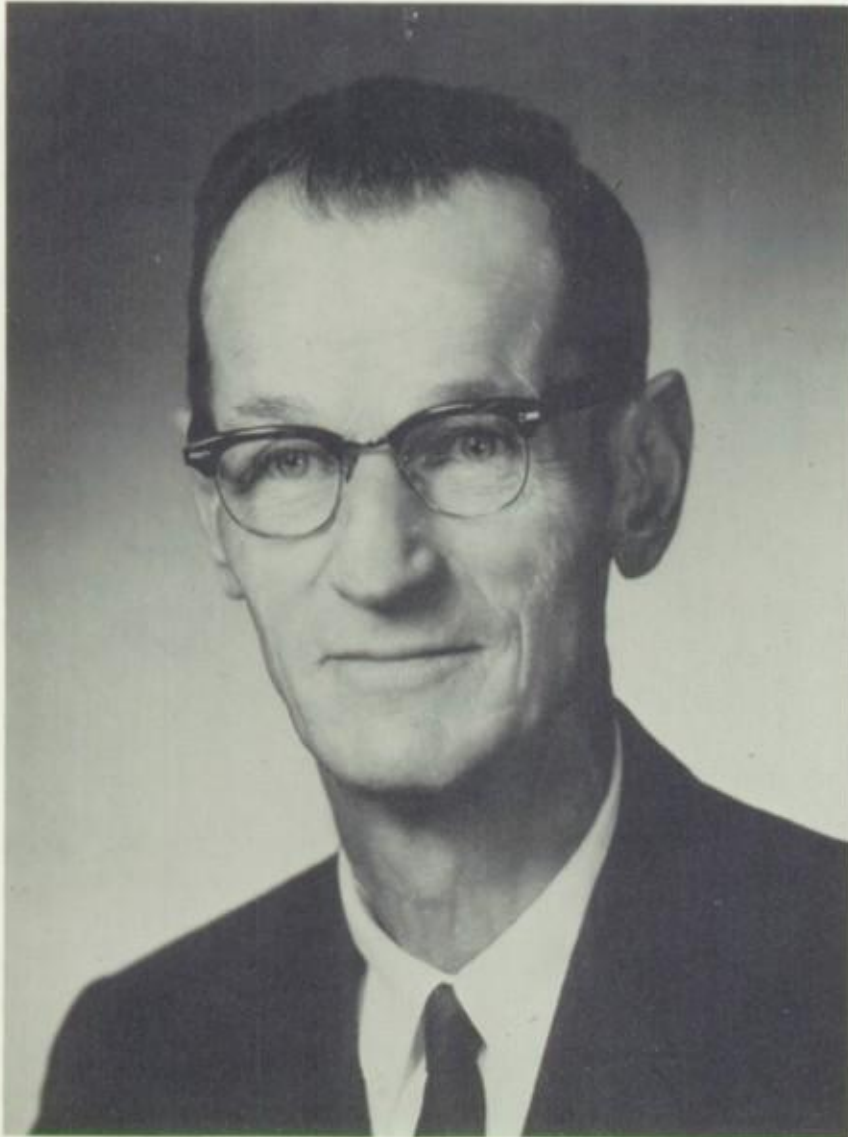

I am happy to join your school system and share your accomplishments in some small way. In the short time that I have been a part of your community, I have observed that you are fine examples of the type of student our school can be proud of. I am sure that your work and accomplishments will be a credit to a school system that has produced many fine and talented graduates.

Earnest L. Louk
Superintendent of Schools

ViAnn Rice, Half time Office Secretary; Mr. Louk, Betty Cook, Superintendent's Secretary.

Principal

WILLIAM E. KRAMER

Rarely in human history has it been harder to estimate the future. Thousands of men and women are pioneering in the fields of chemistry, engineering, transportation, and in all phases of social and political life, in a fascinatingly speeded up world of communications.

As President John F. Kennedy said in his Inaugural Address, "In the long history of the world only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger."

For people with strong hearts it is a great time to be on the scene of action. Every despair is a challenge.

Most encouraging is the new outlook for America that former President Kennedy spoke of: a new vitality, a new courage in leadership to keep America strong.

To you graduating seniors of Clarkston High School and all graduating seniors of America we turn with faith and hope, remembering always that to have great leaders we must first have great people who believe in God and have faith in his teachings.

Your splendid yearbook portrays the kind of leadership our nation is going to depend upon in the years to come.

CHARLOTTE CHASE is a young lady of unlimited talent. She won her title as "Miss Clarkston" by displaying one of her many attributes, singing. Charlotte is active in A Cappella, Musical Ensemble, Girls' League, and was May Festival Princess of '63" and '64". She plans to further her education in music and we know she'll be very successful.

ALAN BURATTO - As president of Honor Society, Alan has given much time and valuable effort towards the betterment of CHS. Alan is always there with a ready smile and a willing hand.

Good luck in the future, Alan!

Outstanding Seniors

JANICE GLENNY - She's one of the peppiest girls that we have here at our school. Always on the go to one of her many extra activities -- Pep Club, National Honor Society, Scarleteers -- you wonder how she does it.

The very brightest future to you, Janice.

DON MC QUARY - Looked up to as a student leader, Don is ASB president this year. His political past has enabled him to fill this office well. Don has participated in sports and was Clarkston's Boys' State Delegate.

The best of luck to one of our finest young men!

NEXT ATTRACTION

ROBERT COUNTRYMAN - The pen is mightier than the sword. A motto well backed by his activities at CHS. Bob is at present the leader of our most distinguished senior class. He is also a member of the National Honor Society and is the light in the darkroom. Smile Bob! From here on out, we'll take your picture!

KRIS MC MURRAY is the girl with the twinkling eyes and a warm smile. She is Girls' League Miss Charm. Kris is a member of FTA, Student Council, Scarleteers, and Pep Club Treasurer. These are only a few of her many activities here at CHS. Have a wonderful time this summer, and keep up the cute smile, Kris.

KATHY FITZGERALD - Madame President, a title well earned by this young lady does her justice. President of Girls' League, hours in Pep Club, Scarleteers, Student Council, and Girls' Letter Club should be enough to keep anyone busy. Yet with all these activities, she still has time to be engaged.

STEVE PRATT - An all-around good guy would be an excellent way to describe Steve. But his talents aren't limited just to that department. Steve has also been an active member in student government. Steve's grades merited him membership in National Honor Society. Plans of attending WSU next year are in store for Steve.

LINDA STOREY - Miss "CHS" is a girl with as many friends as she has interests. Linda has been an excellent representative of our school. Most of her time is spent studying to keep her A average. She is active in Letter Club, Pep Club, FTA president, and was an Evergreen Girls' State Delegate. With such high qualifications and a glowing personality, we know she will go far.

JAY HENRY is our athlete of the hour. While being a very ardent member of our basketball, football, baseball, and golf teams, he has managed to keep an A average. This is quite a skill in itself. Jay has a role in our student court, National Honor Society, and Scarlet Shield. Stay in there and fight Jay, we know you can do it (if anyone can).

VIRGINIA CARR - A warm and pleasing personality is only one of this girl's many qualities. Because of these factors she was the reigning queen at the class of '65" Senior Ball. Virginia finds her school interests in Girls' Letter Club, Pep Club, Student Body Secretary, and many more, too numerous to mention. Good luck at the Normal, Virginia.

BOB BANGER has artistic hands and an eye for beauty. He is one of our best school spirit boosters. Bob is president of Pep Club, a member of Student Council, and Boys' Letter Club. For the very few people who might not know Bob, he usually appears dressed quite casually. If you see sneakers, cut off jeans, an old sweat-shirt, and a cute smile - that's our Bob!

We now have a new organization in our school, which is a cross section of the student body. It has seven members.

The main job of this organization is to do the foot work for the student council.

We all hope this group will be a big success, and stay a part of our student government.

Thanks to the many supporters of the Clarkston High Music Dept., the band received their new uniforms early this spring. The uniforms serve a double purpose as they can be used for parades as Shelley Smith shows or for more formal concerts as the one Dick Ekwall wears. Every member of the High School would like to thank the townspeople who supported our project.
